A red arrow points to the "Additional Info" section. The main content area displays a map of North Dakota with a green highlight over the Bismarck area. Above the map is a link to "Dakota Skies Fall 2010 Edition (large file - allow some time)". Below the map is a section titled "Latest Conditions in Bismarck, ND" showing the current date and time as "Nov 4 9:52 am" and the temperature as "35°F (2°C)". To the right of the temperature is a "Select A City:" dropdown menu. Below this section are four links: "Weather Story", "Radar", "Satellite", and "Weather Map". At the bottom of the page, there is a "forecast Discussion" dropdown menu and a "Display" button. The footer contains the National Weather Service logo and contact information for the Bismarck, ND Weather Forecast Office, along with links for "Disclaimer", "Credits", "Glossary", "Privacy Policy", "About Us", and "Career Opportunities".
